

A Visit from the Tooth Fairy

was created specially for you

(Name of Child)

(Special Message)

(From : "Name")

Die Hangkashaas Uitgewers

www.diehangkashaas.co.za

ISBN 978-1-0672494-4-1

One day long, long ago there lived a brown and white Jack Russel puppy named (Name of Child), on an animal farm.

His parents always dreamed of having a baby and when (Name of Child) was born, they named him after (Name of Child), the Bengal tiger that they admired so much.

(Name of Child) was a very small dog. In fact, except for Mickie the mouse, (Name of Child) was the smallest animal on the farm, but his name gave him courage.

He had the heart of a tiger and he believed that he could do anything. His size did not stop him from being the 'meanest' animal on the farm.

Although all the animals respected him, they were slightly afraid of him.

Sometimes even his friends, (Friends name) Bull and Porky Pig moved out of the way when he was nearby.

The baboons were not very afraid of him, but that did not keep him from running up the highest mountain to chase them away.

At night, (Name of Child) kept a close eye on the lucerne fields in case a bush pig wanted some lucerne for dinner.

There was nothing stopping the tiny dog with the heart of a tiger.

One day (Name of Child) did not feel very well.

His tooth started feeling strange and he realised it was loose.

He was shy and afraid, because he worried that the other animals would laugh at him if his tooth fell out.

(Name of Child) stopped walking around the farm like he always did and went to hide away in the barn.

Even though (Name of Child) was the 'meanest' animal on the farm, all the other animals cared a lot for him and they instantly knew something was wrong when they had not seen him for a while.

Although all the animals called him and searched in his favourite places, (Name of Child) was nowhere to be found.

Until one early morning...his mommy, (Mother/Aunt name) found him fast asleep in the barn.

(Name of Child), what is wrong?”, his mommy asked while leaning down to have a closer look at him.

“Something is wrong in my mouth, my tooth wiggles when my tongue touches it and it hurts when I eat”, he yelped softly while pointing his fluffy white paw at his tooth.

Mommy (Mother/Aunt name) smiled knowingly and started telling (Name of Child) all about the Tooth Fairy.

“You see (Name of Child), when you are little, you have baby teeth. When you grow up and become stronger, you need grown-up teeth so that you can chew big, juicy bones! But you can only get grown-up teeth after you have lost your baby teeth.”

(Name of Child) looked at his mommy in shock because he could not believe what he was hearing.

(Name of Child) rolled himself up into a little bundle while listening to his mommy with his one ear pointing upwards.

“Losing your teeth is not a bad thing at all”, mommy (Mother/Aunt name) said and continued with her story while gently licking (Name of Child) on the head.

To read more, please visit our website.

Kindly remember when you order a book the story will be generated according to the child's specific situation. (Character names will reflect the names of his own family and friends)

Click here to visit our website